Fifty Thousand Dollar Damage Suit.

The following from the Lansing Republican will be of interest in Owosso where Mr. Zimmerman is so well known:

Prof. Wm. F. Zimmerman, through his attorney, Judge Q. A. Smith, filed in the circuit court, late this afternoon, an action in the case against Mrs. Elizabeth Whiteley, claiming $50,000 for the alienation of his wife, Nellie's, affections.

The document sets forth that on October 28, 1896, Nellie Whiteley was united in marriage to Wm. F. Zimmerman, and that for some time thereafter the couple resided at the home of Mrs. Whiteley, on Washington Ave. south. That the decree was entered into with the knowledge and consent of the defendant, but that within a short time after the marriage, to wit, two weeks, the defendant began to entice and persuade the said Nellie Zimmerman to withdraw herself from the plaintiff and deny him her society, fellowship, assistance, her wifely offices and her love and affection, and has so continued to entice and persuade the said Nellie M. Zimmerman from these thereto.

The action further sets up that in consequence of the aforesaid unlawful enticement and persuasion, the wife of the said plaintiff, on Nov. 10 last, without leave and against his will, separated herself from him; that her affection for him has become wholly destroyed and permanently alienated, and inasmuch that she refuses to live with him in his own home to the plaintiff's damage of $50,000.

The parties in the case are all well known to the readers of the Republican. Mr. Zimmerman was, for several years and until very recently, choir-master at St. Paul's church, while the defendant and her daughter are well known society people; the wedding, which occurred on the evening of Oct. 28, 1896, followed by a reception at the Hotel Downey, being one of the society events of the year.

Deputy Sheriff Fogg served the papers upon Mrs. Whiteley this afternoon, but the lady declined to talk for publication today.

Are You Nervous?

Mrs. C. C. Filler, 135 1/2 South Fourth street, Columbus, O., writes to Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, O., as follows: "For ten or fifteen years I have been subject to nervous dyspepsia. I would have spells of quivering in my stomach, with smothered feelings. My nerves were terribly debilitated, I was suffering from what is called nervous prostration. My stomach felt bloated, and I was constantly weak and trembling. I consulted several physicians who treated me without doing any good. I had almost given up in despair when I heard of Pe-r-u-na. It was about six years ago that I first took Pe-r-u-na. I found it an immediate relief to all my disagreeable symptoms. It is the only medicine that has ever been of any use to me." Mrs. Lucie Walda, Oswego Lake, Mich., box 67, writes: "For three years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach. I wrote to you for advice and you told me to take your medicine. It has been ten months since I began to use your medicine and I am perfectly well. I think your medicine deserves of much praise."

Send for Dr. Hartman's latest book on "Winter Catarrh." Address your letter to Columbus, Ohio.

Fenton Independent: Dr. W. M. Wemp, who located in Fenton, for the practice of his profession—medicine—a few weeks ago, has purchased the practice of the leading physician of Bennington, Shiawassee county, and removed with his family to that place the first of the week. Dr. Wemp is a skilled physician, and deserves a large and lucrative practice in his new field.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1/4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

A Social Event.

This is what the bazaar given annually by the ladies of the Congregational church has come to be, an event which is looked forward to by those who delight in the artistic, and those who still believe in the good old custom of Christmas giving, and who with the poet feel that

"Welcome be it new or old,
The gift that makes the day more bright,"
And have come to seek their gifts at this annual bazaar. There may be "no new thing under the sun," but the ladies having the work in charge imagine that they can disprove the old adage, and will be able to display a number of articles that are not only beautiful and useful, but absolutely new, and invite the public to call at the church parlors either Tuesday or Wednesday afternoon or evening of next week.

Come and partake of the good cheer and welcome, even if you do not wish to buy. Admission to the rooms will be free.

The following ladies will preside over the booths:

Fancy Work—Mesdames J. W. Watters, Tod Kincaid, Charles Loring, C. J. Matthews, Miss Josephine Collier.

Linen Work—Miss Henrietta Williams, Mesdames B. G. Evans, D. J. Gerow, T. O. Christian.

Domestic Work—Mesdames O. F. Webster, S. A. Evans, H. W. Holman, G. T. Campbell, Misses Florence Webster, Nina Broad.

Sherbet Booth—Misses Edith Phelps, May Webster, Maytie Morrill.

Candy Booth—Misses Mary Henderson, Ailie Brooks, Mrs. Erven Geeck, Misses Mabel Richardson, Bessie Johnson, Hannah Dewey.

Flowers—Mrs. Frank Woodard, Misses Myrtle Wiley, Anna Deal.

Art Corner—Miss Fanny Mead, Mrs. Elbert Woodward, Miss Florence Zimmerman.

On Tuesday evening, in connection with the bazaar, an individual chicken pie supper will be served for twenty cents. The reputation of the ladies for these chicken pies is already established.

On Wednesday evening a good supper of meats, salads, etc., will be served for fifteen cents.

The ladies in charge of the suppers are: Mesdames S. A. Evans, Geo. Collier, W. E. Collins.

Mrs. C. D. Stewart will have charge over the dining room.

Ushers—Mesdames A. M. Hume, Robt. Gemmel.

The following ladies and gentlemen will act on the reception committee: Mesdames McGulneas, W. S. Ament, J. Thompson, J. C. Cromer, A. Todd, C. McCormick, R. E. Travis, Misses Anna Campbell, Nellie Turner; Messrs. E. W. Woodard, G. L. Taylor, J. C. Cromer, W. S. Ament, R. O. Dewey, G. B. McCaughan, Morris Osburn, G. T. Campbell.

The ladies having charge of the bazaar request that all linen work be brought to Miss Etta Williams, and the fancy work to Mrs. M. L. Stewart as early as Saturday noon.

The "Maple Drain" Demurs.

Some time ago the farmers of Maple River made a concerted effort to put a stop to all hunting on their property. A large number of printed notices were procured by the farmers' club and were distributed to all farmers who wished them. As a result nearly all land in the neighborhood is "posted," and "No hunting allowed," greets the blood-hungry on every side. Since the posting of these notices the writer has heard the report of but one gun, and he happened to know that this was being used to improve on the primitive and painful method usually employed in the killing of a pig.

The above action on the part of our farmers has been regarded by some as decidedly unbecoming, and in a humorous article in the last issue of THE TIMES these grasping farmers are likened to "dogs in the manger," and other insinuations are made which are, we think, not only unkind, but uncalled for.

The action was taken chiefly in the interests of that little friend of every farmer, the quail. We often hear it argued that the farmers will not shoot the quail anyway, so we city hunters might as well have as much fun out of them as we can. True it is that way down deep in the inside of a great many farmers is a little something that will not let them take steps to injure or destroy the little balls of brown. We who are engaged in farming and who are constantly so close to nature's bosom can all appreciate this feeling, while I expect that one who works in the shop from sun to sun could not. After watching the beautiful little mother quail and her brood through the spring and summer days, as they diligently and fearlessly run about helping us in our ceaseless and ever increasing warfare against noxious insects, one would no more think of shooting into them than into a flock of domestic poultry. Not so, our city sportsman, who with gun in hand and murder in heart will do more of destruction and bone-breaking in two months than some nature can repair in a year.

One of the features of rural life, which with me does more than all else to make the comparative seclusion, not only bearable but positively attractive, are the many beauties of untrammelled nature by which we are surrounded, and can our city brothers and sisters, surrounded by the rush of the city, enjoying all of the privileges of urban life, begrudge to us our little friends in fur and feathers.

Come out into the country, brother, we welcome you; we welcome you to our fresh, pure air; we welcome you to share in the beauties of nature which surround us, but for the sake of common humanity leave the dog in his kennel and the gun in its case.

The Ann Arbor Shops and Road.

David Prendergast, of Durand, visited the shops Tuesday.

Wm. Pease has been removed from the Owosso shops to the Frankfort boiler shop to fill a vacancy at that place.

Three large bulk boats, the Fairwell and Ford, which will carry fifty cars each, and the Nebraska, with one hundred car capacity, have been added to the Ann Arbor line at Frankfort. These boats, with car ferries number 1 and 2, will begin operations next week. The Houghton has been rigged for breaking the ice so that the boats will make regular trips, regardless of the weather.

The new warehouse at Frankfort has been completed. Three hundred and thirteen cars can be stored in this building. One hundred men are employed in and about the building.

Walter Cowin, fireman, was called to Frankfort Wednesday to take a regular run on engine No. 35.

Every north bound freight is full of empties, drawing them to the warehouse at Frankfort, preparatory for the trial trip of the boats the first of the week.

E. E. Lovett, engineer on the Toledo yard engine, spent Tuesday looking about the shops in this city.

T. Veit, of Durand, was in town Tuesday.

Chas. Coleman is visiting his parents at Frankfort this week.

Engine No. 11 was turned out Tuesday for a passenger run on the south end. Engine No. 28 made a trial trip Wednesday, after a general overhauling. Toledo switch engine No. 30 is receiving a complete remodeling this week.

Fireman John Becker, of Clare, while on his run Tuesday was taken sick and had to be removed from his engine when he reached this city. He was cared for by some employees and medical assistance called. He was enabled to return home Thursday.

J. A. Millen, the company's purchasing agent at Frankfort, stopped over at the mechanic's office in this city on his way home from Toledo, Tuesday.

R. Lawse and J. Thompson were in Frankfort three days of this week in the interest of the Ann Arbor Ry.

David McWhinney, a painter, is dangerously ill.

J. Haupt returned to work Wednesday, after a week's sickness.

Four hundred new box cars are being built for this road at Pullman. J. Walton is there this week inspecting the work.

Officers of the Standard Tire Co. were called here Monday to inspect the tires containing soft spots. A number of defects were found and the tires will be returned to the foundry.

The wrecking crew were called to Howell Sunday, to pick up the cars, smashed in the wreck at that place.

After meals you should have simply a feeling of comfort and satisfaction. You should not feel any special indications that digestion is going on. If you do, you have indigestion, which means not digestion. This may be the beginning of so many dangerous diseases, that it is best to take it in hand at once and treat it with Shaker Digestive Cordial. For you know that indigestion makes poison, which causes pain and sickness. And the Shaker Digestive Cordial helps digestion and cures indigestion. Shaker Digestive Cordial does this by providing the digestive materials in which the sick stomach is wanting. It also tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and makes them perfectly healthy. This is the rationale of its method of cure, as the doctors would say. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.
